NOTE FOR THE FILE

Sir:

In further reviewing the patented claims, the following typographical error was noted in claim 37, column 43, line 34 in which "accepta,ble" should be --acceptable--. That is to say, the comma should be deleted.

The printing error is the fault of the Patent Office.

Since this error does not affect the meaning of the word, a Note For The File is deemed to be sufficient to set the record straight.

Please enter this paper in the File History of the application.
